Dear Student / Parents,

Greetings from Lloyd Academic Family!

There is an adage that "Law is a jealous mistress" and there is no room in it for the lazy and mediocre. Lloyd Law College is a learning-centric academic community committed to excellent legal education. We create intellectually stimulating environment that helps students develop through case studies and case analysis; hone their writing, argumentation, and counselling skills; and think broadly and critically about legal problem-solution. We work to keep these programs at the vanguard of legal education. We takes efforts to provide an individualized support approach to each students' academic and specific needs and concerns. This mail is to bring forth following important issue;

LLOYD LAW COLLEGE RESEARCH CENTRE:

Research skill is the most basic skill set that is needed to approach any problem – solution. In legal education, practice and profession anywhere in the world at all levels, research is marked as the most important employability factor in legal services industry. This program is initiated independently by the college to fill a great vacuum in its students' life at the law school. It is mandated to create a better understanding and expression of law and legal process in legal education, practice and profession.

Lloyd Law College Research Centre proposes enrolling students and providing them with an opportunity to be a part of our endeavour for conducting research in contemporary legal issues. Interested students are supposed to submit a Statement of Interest (SoI) in 300 words, indicating their interest in research to the research centre in hard copy by 4:30 pm, Thursday 31 August 2017 along with their name, enrolment number and year of study to researchcell@lloydlawcollege.edu.in. The Research Centre at Lloyd is headed and assisted by the finest researchers and academicians in the legal academics in India.
